MANGOES KEY WEST, TASTE THE LIFESTYLE

Visitors to the island will enjoy native natural local cuisine which is a blend of Bahamian, Cuban, West Indies, and Key West. All food is made fresh in-house and our seafood is all sourced locally making it of the freshest quality possible. We resource our seafood from local vendors and acquire local and indigenous produce to showcase the island's cuisine. Creative American classic dishes are also available. We can cater to groups seeking to hold private events as small as 6 to as large as 300.

Enjoy lunch, dinner and cocktails in our starlight lounge, people watch from our Duval Street side seating, or cool off in our open air conditioned dining room that ties our beautiful property together. Our bar serves an amazing selection of craft beers on tap, along with the classical favorites, specialty cocktails, frozen drinks and a wine list to meet our guest's needs.

Mangoes also offers catering services and the most unique Duval Street event space.

OUR HISTORY

CAFE EXILE. LATE 1970s

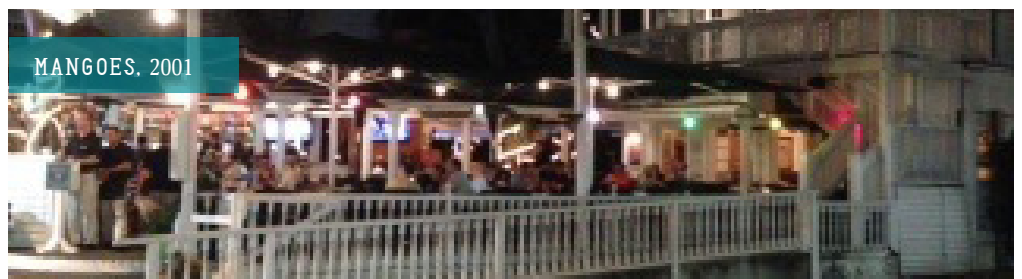

PREVIEW LOUNGE. 1960s

SHIP WRECK LOUNGE. MID 1970s

THE TROPICS. 1970s

MANGOES. 2001

The corner of 700 Duval and Angela street, has been home to several restaurants and night clubs since the end of World War II, including the Preview Lounge, The Tropics / Topless Nightly (“featuring live nude girls”), the Ship Wreck Lounge, Café Exile and most recently Mangoes.

The current owners and operators are the father and son team of Daniel and Jack Dingeman. Daniel and his father, “Captain Jack”, sailed into Key West in 1992 for a sailboat race, and never left. Captain Jack has sailed off into the sunset, Daniel’s son Jack joined the operation in 2016.

A complete renovation of the entire facility occurred in 2016. Where once stood a package liquor store, an adult entertainment stages, now stands an indoor/outdoor dining room, the beautiful outdoor Star Light lounge and the main bistro outdoor dining and cocktail bar.
